Editor(s)-in-Chief

European Management Review · issued on behalf of the European Academy of Management (EURAM)

TERM STARTS	DURATION	DEADLINE	INTERVIEWS
1 January 2027	3 years, renewable once	1 November 2026	Second half of November

ABOUT EMR

European Management Review (EMR) is the official journal of the European Academy of Management (EURAM). The journal publishes rigorous, theoretically grounded, and empirically robust research across the full spectrum of management studies, with a distinctive commitment to reflecting the diversity of European management scholarship and perspectives.

THE OPPORTUNITY

EURAM is seeking to appoint the next Editor-in-Chief (or a team of Co-Editors-in-Chief) of EMR for a term beginning on 1 January 2027. This is a unique opportunity to shape the strategic direction of a leading European management journal, strengthen its international visibility and impact, and support the development of the next generation of European management scholars.

ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Editor-in-Chief will be expected to:

- Provide strategic and intellectual leadership for the journal, including its positioning, scope, and editorial policy
- Oversee the peer-review process, ensuring rigour, timeliness, and fairness
- Select, manage and mentor the Editors, the Editorial Review Board and Associate Editors
- Work closely with the publisher and EURAM's Executive Committee to advance the journal's academic standing and metrics (e.g., impact factor, indexing)
- Promote the journal within the European and international management research community
- Commission special issues and editorials that reflect emerging themes in management research
- Represent EMR at EURAM's Annual Conference and other relevant academic events
- Serve as an ex officio member of the EURAM Executive Committee
- Contribute to the development and implementation of EURAM's strategy in their area of responsibility

CANDIDATE PROFILE

We are looking for candidate(s) who can demonstrate:

- A strong international publication record in management studies
- Prior editorial experience (e.g., as Associate Editor, Guest Editor, or Editorial Board member of a peer-reviewed journal)
- A clear vision for the future development of EMR
- Strong organisational and leadership skills, with the capacity to build and coordinate an editorial team
- An active engagement with the international management research community

TERM AND HONORARIUM

The appointment is for a term of 3 years, renewable for a second term subject to review by the EURAM Executive Committee. The post carries an honorarium.

HOW TO APPLY

Candidates (or candidate teams) should submit:

1. A cover letter outlining their vision for EMR and their motivation for the role
2. A current CV
3. A brief editorial strategy statement (max. 2 pages)

Send your application to marine.condette@euram.academy by 1 November 2026.

EURAM will appoint a selection committee to review and shortlist candidates. Video calls with shortlisted candidates will be scheduled for the second half of November.

Informal enquiries about the role are welcome and can be directed to the same address.

EURAM is committed to diversity and inclusion in its editorial leadership and welcomes applications from scholars from all backgrounds and institutions across Europe and beyond.
